

God at Work Among Refugees in Egypt

Sep 25, 2025

A video update. Our Black Rock Spotlight Partner, ~~Rafi Abu Khalil~~, Abu, serves as area leader for Pioneers in Egypt and Sudan and directs Arab World Media. He recently shared an incredible story of how God is at work among refugees in Egypt.

Salma, a Muslim woman from Sudan, fell in love with a Christian man. When war forced their family to flee to Egypt, their journey took an unexpected turn. Through the refugee ministry Black Rock helps to support, a team welcomed them, found housing, and even helped Salma find work.

As those relationships grew, Salma wrestled with her deepest question: How can I be sure of eternal life? Islam offered no assurance. But through hearing the gospel in a house church, Salma discovered the hope of Christ.
