WHAT IS THERE FOR KIDS?

Here's how kids from birth - grade 5 can participate in Missions Week

Kids Church

Sunday, March 8 & 15 | 9:00AM, 10:30AM, and 12:00PM

Kids will connect with Global Partners and hear about different countries, cultures, and faith traditions. No registration required.

Kids Program

Wednesday, March 11 | 6:30PM-8:00PM

Kids in grades 1-5 are invited to join us for KIDZ J.A.M. (grades 1-2) and ELEVATE (grades 3-5) where Global Partners will share their stories. Through games, activities, lessons, and songs, kids will hear about what it means to be a Global Partner. Child care is also available for birth-kindergarten.

SUNDAY SCHEDULE

Sunday, March 8 | Pastor Afeef Halasah (AFTA - Arabs for the Arabs network)

Speaking at 9:00AM, 10:30AM, and 12:00PM services. Global Partner Aaron will speak at the 8:30AM service.

Afeef Halasah is a Jordanian pastor and the executive director of the Arabs for the Arabs network (AFTA), a church-planting movement focused on starting indigenous house churches among believers from a Muslim background and advancing the fulfillment of the Great Commission across the Arab world and beyond.

Sunday, March 15 | Peter Fretheim (City Ministries, Nigeria)

Speaking at 9:00AM, 10:30AM, and 12:00PM services. Global Partner Abu will speak at the 8:30AM service.

Peter Fretheim and his wife have worked in Nigeria for over two decades. They founded City Ministries, now an umbrella organization to many ministries, to preach the Gospel and bring healing to the hurting.
